

Ah Yat Abalone takes home Hello Bali Magazine Award!

A Steak house and modern Seafood Grill Overlooking Jimbaran's Sunset Coast

Nestled amongst the unique forestry setting of RIMBA Jimbaran BALI by AYANA, Ah Yat Abalone Seafood Restaurant pays tribute to appetite's unafraid to indulge in a gastronomic adventure. The love for this new level of quality brought to Chinese cuisine was recently reinforced as Ah Yat Abalone scooped the award for Best Casual Dining in the Hello Bali Magazine Awards.

Ah Yat Abalone gracefully accepted the award during an awards dinner held on 16 May 2016. The winner was chosen after hundreds of fans voted for this notably special venue.

The success of Ah Yat Abalone is a fusion of many elements, including Ah Yah Abalone's Chef, Cheung Kin Kau, who brings more than 20 years' experience to his role at Ah Yat's flagship restaurant. Alongside the knowledge of producing highbrow cuisine is the vast variety that calls to food fanatics. Reflecting Ah Yat's Cantonese heritage, the extensive menu features traditional delicacies alongside popular dishes that cater for a wider range of tastebuds. Adventurous diners may enjoy the distinct flavors and renowned health benefits associated with Birds' Nest, Sea Cucumber and Abalone, while dim sum lovers may opt for Yum Cha with a selection of 31 different types of dim sum. Built-in tanks hold more than 100 types of live seafood, ensuring maximum freshness before the chefs perfectly cook your selection, whether grilled, steamed, barbecued or fried, and serve it with your choice of flavors and sauces.

Complementing RIMBA's eco-chic design by WATG Architects, Ah Yat Bali embodies old-world Chinese hospitality and cuisine, in a modern, stylish setting. An eclectic mix of custom-made furniture and artworks contrasts with traditional Chinese table settings, matched by impeccable service from waitresses in bright cheongsam dresses. The two-storey venue has VIP rooms and large open dining areas, making it a perfect choice for wedding receptions, private parties and corporate functions for up to 300 people.

Thankfully, this favored restaurant isn't just for hotel guests. Diners from outside of the resort are invited to dine at Ah Yat Abalone for lunch and dinner.
