After touring AYANA’s stunning new shopping arcade, guests were escorted to a second venue situated below Tresna Wedding Chapel for an evening of music, live entertainment and food served from a selection of AYANA’s most loved restaurants including Sami Sami, HonZEN, DAVA Steak & Seafood, Ah Yat Abalone and Rock Bar, BALI. The new banqueting suite, which is graced with an endless ocean backdrop, made the ideal indoor and outdoor venue to comfortably host over 200 guests. While grazing, sipping cocktails and reveling in good company, a special announcement was made by resort General Manager, Clive Edwards.

“The AYANA story began with AYANA Resort and Spa, BALI. In April 2017 we opened our second property AYANA Midplaza, JAKARTA, and in summer 2018, I am proud to announce that we will be launching a third resort - AYANA Komodo Resort, Waecicu Beach.”

The surprise announcement of a third hotel was a triple treat for the AYANA community. AYANA Komodo Resort, Waecicu Beach is scheduled to open summer 2018 with 201 bedrooms, 6 restaurants and bars and 3 swimming pools. The resort will have a private white sand beach, spa, gym and kid’s club. The resort will open alongside AYANA Lako di’a – a 54 meter, 9-bedroom phinisi ship. In keeping with AYANA tradition, the service will be superlative as local and Balinese hospitality intertwines to offer standards like no other on the island.

Bringing the evening to a close, guests retreated upstairs to Tresna Wedding Chapel for an aisle of lip-licking desserts. The sweet showcase, thoughtfully prepared by AYANA's very own master chefs, truly brought the term 'as good as it looks' to life!

AYANA has been part of Bali's luxury hospitality community for over 20 years; during this time the brand has journeyed through important milestones, which in 2017 included the opening of Kubu Beach Club and the launch of weddings on the Pier, on the beach and at the iconic Rock Bar, BALI. Developments also included a new wedding deck at AYANA Villa, an extension to their spa treatment rooms, which now total 53, and the opening of AYANA
